

For Immediate Release: June 27, 2011

“Bartell Drugs Stage” hosts live music before and after Family 4th at Lake Union grand fireworks display

SEATTLE— The “Bartell Drugs Stage” will be the scene of live music performances before and after Seattle’s grand fireworks display July 4--one of many free activities for the entire family during at the 2011 Family 4th at Lake Union.

The Dusty 45s will light up the stage at Seattle’s Gas Works Park from 8-9 pm with an encore set following the fireworks show. The group’s high-energy, crowd-pleasing brand of Americana music has made them popular with fans of all ages.

Bartell Drugs was among the companies and individuals stepping up with sponsorships and donations to make this year’s celebration on Lake Union possible, according to Jon Stone, executive director of One Reel, the not for profit producer of the Family 4th at Lake Union.

“We’re proud to have Bartell Drugs support the Family 4th at Lake Union,” said Stone. “They have a longstanding history within this community and a commitment to the people who live here. The “Bartell Drugs Stage” is a wonderful addition to an amazing day of civic celebration and family fun.”

Founded in Seattle in 1890, Bartell Drugs owns and operates stores in King, Snohomish and Pierce counties. Family-owned and operated, it is the nation’s oldest drugstore chain.

For more information on the Family 4th at Lake Union visit www.familyfourth.org

###

Media Contacts:

Theron Andrews, V.P. of Marketing, Bartell Drugs, 206.763.2626, or

Barry Bartlett, The Bartlett Group Public Relations, 206.529.3612